We used the Spice Sister's personal chef service for my parent's anniversary dinner. Jennifer was pleasant and professional and she cooked a wonderful meal for us. She brought the ingredients and her own cookware, which meant that I didn't have to do any prep or clean-up. I would definitely recommend The Spice Sisters to anyone who wants a nice alternative to going out to a restaurant for a special occasion.

Great food, prepared fresh and with the best ingredients. For people concerned about quality, this is one of the best personal chef experiences out there! Jennifer was professional and informative and the food was amazing; she helped make my wife's 30th birthday a great success!

Thursday's birthday dinner went very well, thanks to your cooking! My husband enjoyed the smells and tastes of the Moroccan spices in the koftas and couscous. The portions were very generous, so we had two lunches to enjoy the next day. I sent photos to friends and family, and they were envious of our special dinner. Tonight we had the Moroccan Chicken Stew which was also delicious. Thanks again for everything!

Thank you for everything on Saturday! The food was absolutely incredible - from the appetizers right to the dessert, it was all perfect! I got a lot of compliments from the guests about how great everything tasted. The experience of having you come into my home, cook the food there, and be around to explain your dishes was also really fun! You were also very pleasant and a pleasure to have around! Thanks for all your hard work and delicious talent in the kitchen!
